POE AMENDMENT TO BE DEFEATED

Maryland Democrats Divide, and Disfranchisement of Negro Seems Improbable.

Democratic Dislike of Senator Now Makes Hatred of Bonaparte Look Like Love.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., October 29.-If the concensus of opinion as expressed by best informed as to political sentiment in Maryland be accepted, the Democrats who are making a fight for the adoption of the Poe amendment to the Constitution, designed to eliminate the negro from the electorate, will be unsuccessful. The party is not united on the question-indeed, it is weefully divided-and the Republicans are using all vided—and the Repulsicans are tasks.

the power of the national administration to defeat the amendment. As conditions are new, the amendment will not win, unless there be a great change in sentiment before the 7th of November, or ment before the 7th of November, or writess practiced politicians have misread public sentiment.

The campaign is more fiercely contested than the national campaign of last fall. That alone is saying a great deal, for the Demécratic State of Maryland was a battleground then, and such an able fight did the Republicans make that one Roose-selt electry was alored. Charles, Lerows did the Republicans make that one Roose-velt elector was elected. Charles Jerome Bonaparie, now Secretary of the Navy, really led the light for the Republicans last fall, and he is the leader this year in the struggle against eliminating the negro voic. It is probable that Mr. Bona-parte, to whom Mr. Gorman always al-ludes as "Napoleon Bonaparte," is de-lighted that he is at last not only in a parity, but a leader. He has been a mug-wump all his life.

Paradoxical Position.

Paradoxical Position.

Bonaparte's position is a peculiar one. Not only is he, who is now at the head of the Republican party of Maryland, a mugwump by instinct, but he has for twenty years or more been one of the rost unceasing advocates of reform of the civil service. He has advocated civil service examinations for applicants for appointment to every kind of office, from charwoman to bureau chief, and has advocated the merit system in municipal and State offices as well as in the Federal civil service. Yet he is making the fight civil service. Yet he is making the fight of his life against the adoption of the of his life against the adoption of the system as applied to applicants for the exercise of the right to vote. The Sec-retary is going to make a whirlwind canvass of the State next week, making many rear-end platform speeches, in ad-dition to a number of more lengthy ad-

Say Rayner Welched.

United States Senator Isadore Rayner, though a Democrat, is fighting the amend ment. So is Governor Warfield, who was elected to office by Demicratic votes. Rayner is as active as he knows how to be in labor to defeat the amendment, but be in labor to defeat the amendment, but the Governor is not taking a part in the night further than to announce his oppo-sition to the disfranchising amendment. Rayner appears to have got himself into a rather tight place, Immediately fol-lowing his public declaration of opposi-tion to the amendment, there was issued a statement by Stale Senator Joshua Miles, one of the best know men in Maryland, in which deadis were given of an agreement entered into by Rayner to an agreement entered into by Rayner to support the amendment to the Constitudisfranchising the negroes. Rayner denied the story, but another prominent member of the Maryland Legislature, member of the Maryjand Legislature, State Senator Thomas II., Robinson, promptly came forward, substantiating Miles's statement, and giving further de-tails of the circumstances surrounding the adoption of the convention between Rayner and friends of the amendment.

There the matter rests. No matter what he effect of the statements made by each the effect of the statements made by each side may be, there is no doubt that Rayner has greatly hurt himself by reason of his course. It is pointed out that he might long ago have declared his position on the amendment, instead of waiting until the last "homest, when sentiment had crystallized;" and it was possible, he thought, to foresee the result. I heard it asserted by a man of unusual opportunities to study the situation in Maryland, that it would be impossible to elect Rayner to the Scaute now, as was done Rayner to the Senate now, as was done last year. He has lost prestige. He has deliberately bolted the action of the dorsed the amendment, and thus put himcorsed the amendment, and thus put him-self beyond the party pale. Much as the regular bemocrats of Maryland hate Charles J. Bonaparte, their dislike of Rayner makes the other sentiment look like love.

Gorman's Strong Stand.

Senator Gorman is the undisputed leader of the forces which are nighting for the amendment. He has made one or two speeches, and will make several more this career of the distinguished Marylander, career of the distinguished Marylander. He promised at the convention which endorsed the amendment that if it were adopted by the people he would retire from political life at the expiration of his term in the Senate. He wished to show the people of Maryland he had no personal interests to serve in advocating the elimination of the negro from politics. Yet the chief argument advanced by the opponents of the amendment is that its object is to put the State in the hands of Gorman. By the adoption of an understanding clause, it is charged that it will be possible for the election officers, who will require the interpretation of sections of the Constitution by the applicant to you, for the section of the section of the section in this way Gorman will be able to fix terests of Maryland of having the State controlled by the colored race. The statement constantly made that the amendment should be defeated because there is no danger of negro domination in the State government is met by the statement that they already control, through having in their hands the control of the balance of power. It is predicted that a less drastic amendment to the Constitution will be proposed in the course of a few years, should the Poo amendment be defeated on the 7th of November, and that such a measure will be supported by those who are not willing to go so far as the Poe amendment goes.

DRESS SUIT CASE

Nathan is Arrested.

(Ry Associated Press.) PITTSBURG, PA., October 29.—After long and searching examination at police headquarters, lasting until after 1 o'clock this morning, Morris Nathan, secretary to this morning, Morris Nathan, secretary to the manager of the "Shepherd King" company, was held on a churge of murdering his sweetheart, Miss Susan Geary, the victim of the Winthrop suit case mystery, which has been puzzling the Eoston authorities for more than a month.

Superintendent of Detectives Thomas sisting of four officers of the guard, went to the lawyers' assembly and iold the barristers that many officers and a large part of the troops were disgusted with the government and ready to enlist in the movement for freedom. They asked for aid towards effecting organization, and said they had discussed among themselves the questions of resigning, but decided to show that people in uniform could help to achieve liberties. Even the Cossack patrols, in keeping idlers moving in the streets, to-day seemed careful not to use their whips, and simply drove the crowds along before their advancing horses.

Cranted One Demand.

Superintendent of Detectives Thomas
A. McQualde and Superintendent of Police Alexander Wallace received instructins last night from Superintendent of Police W. A. Pierce, of Boston, to apprehend Nathan and find out what he knew about the disappearance of the girl.
Nathan, accompanied by Manager B.
A. Reinold, Stage Director Samuel Forstand Kimera, Januages employed

her to a subway station on the night of September 9.

Acting Manager Reinold and Stage Manager Forrest were taken to detective headquarters early in the evening by Detective Cole from the Lincoln Hotel. (They denied any knowledge of Nathan's whereabouts and after a long session with Chief Thomas McQuaide, were allowed to go. Reinold and Forrest went to the Hotel Henry "shadowed" by Cole. They went upstairs and Cole secured the number of the room and followed, He found Nathan, Kimeo, Reinold and Forrest coming out of a room of the fifth floor and placed Nathan under arrest.

Nathan Lost His Nerve.

Nathan was inable to stand when he learned that Cole was from detective headquarters. He had been crying for the past week, and was so unnerved that Kimeo and Forrest had to almost carry Kimeo and Forrest had to almost carry him to police headquarters. Superintediated the McQuaide immediately called up Superintendent of Police W. A. Pierce, of Boston, and talked with him over the long distance telephone a long time between the control of the co long distance telephone a solution of the fore returning to his office, where Superintendent Walace, Detectives Cole and Kane, Messrs, Relinold, Forrest, Nathan and Kimeo were in session. Nathan was much overcome, and it was with difficulty that he repeated his story of his conception with the Boston murder mysconnection with the Boston murder myssence during the evening by saying that they had been on a trolley ride. Jose Barron, who was a close friend of the with murdered girl, was located in Lacock Sireet last night, but was not as 2rd to interic give fier story.

Forged Certificate.

Forged Certificate.

The manager, Reinold, has the doctor's certificate which had been received at Lowell, Muss., explaining that Miss Geary was ill, and would be unable to join the company for some days yet.

An expert pennam declared yesterday that the handwriting was that of a man who had endeavored to disguise if. The certificates was signed by 'Dr. P. A. Smith,' his address was not given, however, and the paper was part of a letterhead, the printed mutter on the top having been torn off. 'Dr. Smith' is believed to be a tictilious name, but who it could be. Nathan declared he did not know. He said he knew of no doctors, medical students, or other drugglists who were acquainted with the girl. He declared that he had known her for over a year, and that she was a good, virtuous girl. The members of the company sympathize deeply with Nathan, but believe him innocent, but heart-broken, over the girl's death.

Miss Geary, or Ethel Durrell, as she was known on the stage, was a good looking girl, but not of the strikingly handsome type. She had light brown hair and brown eyes. She was about five feet four inches tall and inclined to be plump. Her engagement to Nathan was known to the other members of the company. The members saw nothing of her after the close of the show on September 5th. She was living at liame, but made the was dissatisfied and her step-father was not good to her, because she did not bring to him all her carnings.

Refuge for Americans. (By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 28.—The condition of affairs in Russia formed the basis of a dispatch received at the State Department to day from Spencer Eddy, the American charge at St. Petersburg, who said the situation was very marming. The dispatch was the subject of a long conference between Secretary Root, who returned to the city from New York carly in the evening and Mr. Bacon, the first assistant secretary, who has been acting as the head of the State Department during Mr. Root's absence. Mr. Eddy assied the department for instructions to meet any eventualities which might arise out of the condition of asfairs as they now exist in St. Petersburg, and late in the evening these were cabled to him.

One feature of these covers the question of protection to Americans riding in St. Petersing in case of a general uprising, which might endanger their lives. In the event of an outbreak they will be accorded the protection of the American embassy until further arrangements can be made for their accommodation, if such be found necessary. It is not believed by the State Department officials that there is any great number of Americans now in St. Petersburg, as most of the tourists have left the country in anticipation of the winter season. Such as may be in the interior, it is thought, are not in danger. Refuge for Americans.

The foreign embassies have discussed the situation, but have as yet taken no steps regarding the safety of foreign residents. As a precaution, the State Department at Washington has been requested to confer authority for the charter of a vesel and to holst om it the American flag, as a refuge for Americans.

The negotiations for a new loan will be formally adjourned to-morrow, as neither the government nor the bankers are prepared to close the negotiations while the present situation continues.

J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., and George W. Perkins are negotiating with the Hamburg-American Steamship Company for the dispatch of a vessel to take them of in case of necessity.

(By Associated Press.) ROME, Oct. 29.—The Vatican authoriles have received reports from the Philippines dealing especially with the recent visit of Secretary of War Taft and his attitude toward Catholic Interests in the island. The reports say that Monsigner Ambrose Agius, the panal delegate, called a meeting of bishops to discuss these interests with the secretary. The latter complained particularly that the money which had already been paid for the friars' lands had been taken out of the islands, and, according to reports, "recalled the fact that Pope Lee and Cardinal Rampolla had promised him during his visit to Rome in 1962 that the money for the lands would go to the benefit of the church in the Philippines, and not to the religlous orders."

church must be observed and protected by the government. Those rights, when in dispute, unless settled by agreement, must be determined by the courts of justice, and the preservation of them is the duty of the Philippine government not only by virtue of the treaty of Paris, but by the Constitution of the United States. Secretary Taft advised Catholics to go to the Supreme Court to regain the property which they claim from Archbishop Aglipay, lead of the Independent Filippine States. The bishops compatined that, after asking one member of the Philippine commission to especially devote himsen to the pain of Catholic Interests, it had not been done, "even by Judge James F. Smith, although Catholic." They urged the payment by the Washington government of what was due to the Catholics for the occopation of the church properties by American troops during the war, and finally set forth the need of financial assistance from the State for parochial schools. The reports say that Secretary Taft, who showed an intention to totally or partialfrom the State for parochial schools. The first day the Prince comes ashore at the Navai Academy a special drill, review and parade of the brigade of midshipmen will be ordered in his honor.

Sometime early in the week the midshipmen will be presented, formed as a brigade of artillery. The uniform is likely to be the white duck one, instead of the blue in which the infantry movements are presented. This is one of the most interesting exercises at the academy. The midshipmen handle the field pices, and a part are detailed as an infantry support. The uses of these two branches of the service both in offense and defense are illustrated.

Prince Louis has without doubt seen well-set up and precise soldlers in his European experiences, but no American, it can be safely said, will have cause to be ashanned of the bearing before him of our young naval soldlers.
